NOTICE.

In offering to the public this Catalogue of Mr. Rice's Library, it is almost unnecessary to say anything further about the Books than to commend the Catalogue itself to the careful reading of our book-buying friends; but custom has made it almost imperative to submit some preliminary remarks, which in this case, however, will be mainly confined to an enumeration of the leading books, in the various departments of literature, in which the Library is especially strong.

We might, in general terms, have characterized this as a "splendid," "superb," "magnificent," "recherché," and "unique" library, had we not felt that these terms have been latterly applied with so much freedom to collections of inferior merit. It will not, however, be too much to say that this Library includes as many rare and costly books as can be found in all the Catalogues of books sold by Auction in New York since the sale of the famous "Private Gentleman's Library,"* in 1866.

In common with many other book-buyers, Mr. Rice commenced the formation of his Library without any definite decision as to the class of books of which it should consist. It is due to his now more matured taste to remark that this Catalogue contains many works which had been put aside for sale some years ago. Lot 505 is a case in point—not but that it is a good book of its kind, but it is of a kind of which it was not desirable to form a "Rice" Library. An accumulation of many other books, which do not accord with Mr. Rice's advanced views, was one of the reasons for making a sale of the whole Library, although Mr. Rice feels that, having bought and paid for his books, he is at perfect liberty to do what he pleases with them, and offers no apology for their sale. Yet it is not without regret that he parts with some of the rarities of this Library, the equals of which money cannot purchase. Still, having determined to make a radical change, he has thought proper to sell his entire collection, reserving only some books presented to him.

Perhaps the most interesting of the specialties of this Library is the large number of ILLUSTRATED BOOKS, by which we mean books in which plates have been inserted in addition to those which properly belong to the work. This is not the place for an essay on Illustration; we may, however, observe, in defence of the gentlemen who destroy so many books in order to form one which is superior, that the result of their labor, when exhibited, generally affords more gratification to their book-loving friends than any other department of a library. Of course every gentleman who pretends to having a library will have a Dibdin's "Tour," and an ordinary copy will be passed over without comment; but what shall be said of Lot 567, with its brilliant array of Portraits, Drawings, Views, etc.? That, with others of its class, demand an inspection, and lead to a comparison with other copies, very much to the gratification of the owner of the best. In this department we also refer the reader to the following works:

106. Barlow's Columbiad. 4to. 1807.

Lot 2351. A superb copy of Walton's Angler would not be unfitting a position among the Fine Arts.

Of what may be called Belles Lettres, or General Literature, in which department we here include anything that cannot be otherwise conveniently classified, the collection is fairly large. We content ourselves with a reference to

10. Addison's Works. Baskeville's Edition.
17. Æsop's Fables. Stockdale's Edition.
61. Arabian Nights. Lane's Translation. 3 vols.
63. Archaica and Lot 978, Heliconia.
76. Ascham's Schoolmaster. Black Letter.
90. Lord Bacon's Works, &c. India Paper.
125. Bayle's Dictionary. 5 vols., folio. Large Paper.
189. Pickering's Prayer-Books. 8 vols., folio.

376–7. Don Quixote. 4 vols., 4to.
414. Cicero's Cato Major. Printed by Franklin, 1744. Uncut.

NATURAL HISTORY is largely represented, and includes some of the grandest works in existence, among which we enumerate

81. Audubon's Birds of America. Folio.
82. Audubon's Quadrupeds. Folio.
369. Catesby's Carolina, Florida, etc.

667. Elliott's Birds of North America.
1140. Jardine and Selby's Ornithology. 3 vols., 4to.
1474. Michaux and Nuttall's North American Sylva. 6 vols.

2046. Samuels' Ornithology of New England.
2061. Sloane's Jamaica. 2 vols., folio. 1707.
2601. Wilson's American Ornithology. 9 vols., 4to.

The collection of POETRY and the DRAMA will not be found so complete in original editions as some other departments. The first editions of

> "The Fairie Queene,
> Old Geffrey, Sidney, Drayton, Randolph, Greene,
> The double Beaumonde, Drummond, Browne," * are "conspicuous by their absence;" but such absence is well recompensed in many instances by the beautiful reprints of Pickering and others; and, for an ordinary library, there is surely enough. We instance

226. Anne Bradstreet's Poems. First Edition. 1651.
245. British Poets. 130 vols. Large Paper.
324. Byron's Works. Large Paper. 10 vols. 4to.
512. Longfellow's Danté. On INDIA PAPER. One of three copies printed.
592. Doran's Annals of the Stage. Extended to 5 vols.
1030. Homer. Translated by Chapman. Folio. 1616.
1117. Ireland's New York Stage. On DRAWING PAPER. One of two copies.
1184. Ben Jonson's Works. Folio.
1438. Massinger. By Gifford. 4 vols., 8vo. 1813.
1475. Middleton. By Dyce. 6 vols. 1840.
1482. Milton's Poems. First complete edition. 1673.
1776. Aldine Poets. 57 vols. Uncut.

* W[hiting's] "Albius and Bellania."

1991. Miss Seward's Monody on Major André. 4to.
2001. Shakespeare. White's, Knight's, Singer's, and other editions.
2014. Shakespeare Society Publications. 18 vols., 8vo. Tree calf.
2037. Shirley's Dramatic Works. 6 vols. Large Paper.
2041. Sibbald's Scottish Poetry. 4 vols., crown 8vo.
2159. Sterling's Recreations with the Muses. Folio. 1637.
2203. Suckling's Works. 1709.
2327. Voltaire's La Pucelle. Translated.
2547. Phillis Wheatley's Poems. 1773.

HISTORY in general is represented by

21. Alison's Europe. 23 vols., 8vo.
737. Finlay's Historical Works. 7 vols.
871. Grote's Greece. Best Edition. 12 vols., 8vo.
1374. Macaulay's Works. 14 vols., 8vo., on India Paper. 1866.
1603. Lord Nelson's Dispatches. 7 vols., 8vo.
1692. Oxford Classics. Consisting of Hume, Smollett, Gibbon, Robertson, Johnson, &c. 46 vols., 8vo. calf, gilt. A beautiful set.
2197. Strickland's Queens of England.
2205. Sully's Memoirs. 2 vols., folio.
2251. Thomson's Magna Charta.

But the chief feature and crowning glory of this Library is the almost unequalled collection of AMERICANA.

This department, although the last formed, is, in many respects, the most complete. It properly forms a part of the history of the formation of this Library to remark that Mr. Rice, through our agency, in the year 1866, became the purchaser, at a cost of fourteen thousand dollars, of the entire library of Americana formed by Mr. John F. McCoy, of New York, which, for its size, was one of the best within our knowledge.

Since that time, Mr. Rice's purchases have been mostly in this direction; and after this sale, he expects to re-enter the lists as a buyer of books of this class. Included in this department are many specimens of early printing in this country, by Samuel and Benjamin Green, William Bradford, Benjamin Franklin, James Franklin, and others.

Among the books in this division, we enumerate the following Lots as being of special merit, either for their beauty or rarity:

3. Acosta's West Indies. Black Letter.
23. Allen's Captivity. 1779.
46. André's Cow Chace. 1780.
75. Ash's Carolina. 1682.
204. Boston Massacre Orations.
217–18. Braddock's Expedition.
224. Bradford Club Books. A complete set.
274. Budd's Pennsilvania. 4to. 1685.
277. Bullock's Virginia. 1649.
292. Burk's Virginia. 4 vols., 8vo.
319. Byfield's Revolution in New England. 4to. 1689.
337. Callender's Rhode Island. 1739.
357. Case of Protestants in Carolina. 1706.
442. Clarke's Bunker Hill. 1775.
490. Cotton's Bloody Tenant. 4to. 1647.
499. Creuxius' Canada. 4to. 1664.
518. Davenport's God's Call to His People. Cambridge, 1669.
552. Delavall and Keith. 4to. Philadelphia, 1693.
662. Eliot's Indian Bible. First Edition. 4to. 1663.
664. Eliot's Tears of Repentance. 4to. 1653.
683. Buccaneers of America.
690. Evans' Map of the Colonies. 1755.
718. Federalist. First Edition, Uncut. 1788.
733. Filson's Kentucky. Illustrated Copy. 1784.

758. Foxe's North-west Fox. 4to. 1635.
764. Franklin's Pennsylvania. Unique Copy.
762 and 769. Almanacks. Printed by B. Franklin, 1752–1766.
772. Franklin's Works. E. D. Ingraham's Large Paper copy.
776–781. Freneau's Poems. All the Editions.
835. Gorton's Simplicities Defence. 4to. 1646.
854. Green's Jersey Prison Ship. 1829.
874. Gryneus' Novus Orbis.
878. Hakluyts' Voiages. Folio. 1589.

The CONDITION of the BOOKS is generally all that a collector of the most critical taste could desire. The proportion of UNCUT and LARGE PAPER COPIES is unusually large.

The Binding is of the best order, and includes some of the choicest specimens of the workmanship of Francis Bedford, W. Pratt, and Charles Lewis, of London; William Mathews, J. M. Bradstreet & Son, and R. W. Smith, of New York; Pawson and Nicholson, of Philadelphia, and a few especially fine by David and other French artists.

The Catalogue has been made with great rapidity, and this circumstance must be accepted as an apology for some of the errors which have occurred, several of which are pointed out in the "errata." Brief notes of the titles and condition of the books were taken in Chicago, between the 1st and 7th of December last, and the Catalogue has been elaborated from a previous acquaintance with the books, a large proportion—nearly four-fifths—of them having already passed through our hands, and we are enabled to guarantee all the books perfect, unless otherwise stated in the Catalogue; and notwithstanding the frequent use of the "adjective," the buyers at this sale will be satisfied, when they get their purchases, that we have not overstated the merits of the books. To facilitate a reference to the contents of the Catalogue, which is arranged alphabetically, an Index of Subjects has been prepared, which we hope will be found useful, if not absolutely correct.

To conclude, we sincerely hope that the buyers at this sale will not be backward in emulating the enthusiasm, determination, and liberality exhibited by their present owner, and that the financial result will be such as to stimulate the ardor of every other collector. Be it remembered, that such a sale is the bibliographical event of the period, that several of the books in this Library are UNIQUE, that the Public Libraries are rapidly absorbing rare and valuable books—some of them will be bought for European Libraries, and are not likely to reappear in this market. Finally, we believe the BIBLIOMANIA is in the ascendant, and that with many of these books it is—NOW or NEVER.

10 ADDISON. The Works of the Late Right Honorable Joseph Addison, Esq.; ... With a Complete Index. Birmingham: Printed by John Baskerville ... MDCCLXI.

4 vols., rl. 4to, calf; Baskerville's beautiful edition, in large type; PORTRAIT and ENGRAVINGS, by Grignon, from Hayman's designs; very scarce; fine copy; free from stains.

Lowndes says, "A beautiful and esteemed edition. Copies are rarely found free from stains."

Dibdin is enthusisatic in recommending this splendid edition.

"'Study Addison night and day,' has been a frequent injunction. What Quintilian says of Cicero and Parr has applied to Burke, may be pronounced also of the writer of the 'Spectator:' Ille se profecisse plurimùm sciat, cui Addisonus valdè placebit. The 'Vision of Mirza' is, perhaps, the first of Eastern apologues, and No. 34 one of the purest specimens of genuine humor.

"When Addison presented his works to Boileau, the latter replied, that 'he should never have taken up the pen against Perrault, had he been previously acquainted with such excellent pieces of a Modern.' He is, indeed, the 'Raffaelle of essay-writers;' and was, deservedly, popular."—WRANGHAM.

11 ADDISON'S CATO, A Tragedy, adapted to the Stage by J. P. Kemble. London. 1811.

8vo, interleaved on 4to, half calf. Kemble's copy, with some MS. notes.

37 AMERICAN (The) and British Chronicle of War and Politics; being an Accurate and Comprehensive Register of the most memorable Occurrences in the last ten Years of His Majesty's Reign: in which will be found above Eighteen Hundred Interesting Events, During the late War between Great Britain and America, France, Spain and Holland; From May 10, 1773, to July 16, 1783. The whole carefully collected from Authentic Records, and correctly arranged in Chronological Order. Multum in Parvo. This compendium, or Political System of Foreign and Domestic Affairs, is a faithful Diary of Civil and Military Transactions, extracted from Government Dispatches and Official Papers, Votes of the House of Commons and Lords, Resolutions of Congress, Acts of Council, Royal Proclamations, Edicts, &c. Provincial Considerations, Debates, Petitions, Addresses, Meetings, and Determinations. Every Engagement by Sea and Land, Military Operations, Civil Establishments, Changes in Administration, Political Struggles, and Principal Appointments; Treaties of Alliance, Commerce, and Peace; Constitutional and Financial Reform; Land and Marine Force of the Belligerent Powers; Public Revenue, Debt, and Expenditure, &c. &c. &c. To the Recapitulation of Public Occurrences during the late War in America and in Europe, is added a general Table of Prior Events; British Governors in America at the Commencement of Hostilities; Members of the first Congress; Constitution and Form of Government of the several States, and Population in Each; Ships of War taken, lost, or destroyed; Roads in America; and a copious Abridgement of the Treaties of Peace. London: Printed for the Author. [1783.]

8vo, half morocco, gilt top; very scarce. The dedication is signed E. J. S. Faribault, No. 926, quotes a book with a similar title, 4 vols., 4to, London, 1801, which is probably an error.

45 ANDRÉ. Proceedings of a Board of General Officers, Held by order of His Excellency Gen. Washington, Commander in Chief of the Army of the Unites States of America Respecting Major John André, Adjutant General of the British Army. September 29, 1780.
Philadelphia: Printed by Francis Bailey in Market-Street. M.DCC.LXXX.

8vo, morocco, uncut edges; first edition, of extreme rarity.

46 ANDRÉ. Cow Chace, In Three Cantos, Published on Occasion of the Rebel General Wayne's Attack of the Refugees Block-House On Hudson's River, on Friday the 21st of July, 1780.
New York: Printed by James Rivington. MDCCLXXX.

8vo. This superb copy of this extremely rare book is one of the CHOICEST GEMS in this collection. The binding is a piece of fine art, in Francis Bedford's best style. It is in rich crimson crushed levant morocco, beautifully polished, and finished to a Grolier pattern; the inside linings are likewise finished in the most beautiful manner, and in corresponding style. The binding alone cost over $75, and is well worth its price. A gentleman, whose experience is only equalled by his taste and judgment in such matters, expresses the opinion that there is not a finer specimen of bookbinding in the city of New York. The condition of this copy is enhanced by its being entirely uncut. In this respect, it is presque unique. "The Cow Chace" occupies eighteen pages; the remainder is a reprint of "The American Times, A Satire, In Three Parts, In which are delineated the Characters of the Leaders of the American Rebellion," and two other short poems.

The following is the last stanza of this mock-heroic poem, founded on the defeat of Generals Wayne, Irving, and Proctor, to which subsequent events gave a melancholy interest:

"And now I've clos'd my epic strain,
I tremble as I show it,
Lest this same warrior-drover, Wayne,
Should ever catch the poet."

First published in Rivington's "Royal Gazette." See M. R., LXVI, p. 72; Niles's "Register," XX, p. 386.

47 ANDRÉ. Minutes of a Court of Inquiry, upon the case of Major John André, with accompanying documents, and an Appendix containing copies of the papers found upon Major André when arrested. Albany. 1865.

3 vols., rl. 8vo, polished calf extra, gilt tops, uncut, bound from the numbers; a superb copy.

"The Notes of Mr. Lane throw more light upon the mystery of Arab life than perhaps all other works in the language."—ATHENÆUM.

"Admirably descriptive of the manners and customs of the East, and more particularly of the Arabian genius and character. The classical reader does not require to be told that Wolfius extravagantly conjectured the Iliad to be a 'Canto composed of the remnants of different rhapsodists of different ages.' Hanc sibio pinionem non probari aiebat Ruhnkenius. (Wyttemb. Vit. Ruhnk., pp. 214, 215.) This theory would, probably, with more correctness, fit the volumes of the 'Arabian Nights.' But see Mr. Granville Penn's 'Examination of the Primary Argument of the Iliad,' and his ingenious defence of it in the 'Classical Journal.'"—WRANGHAM.

62 ARCHÆOLOGIA Americana. Transactions, Collections and Catalogue of the Library of the American Antiquarian Society. 1820–1860.

81 AUDUBON. The Birds of America from Original Drawings By John James Audubon ... . London: Published by the Author. 1827–30.

4 vols., elephant folio, and LETTERPRESS, imp. 8vo, in 5 vols.; an extremely fine copy, newly bound, in half russia, gilt backs.

One of the most sumptuous ornithological works ever published; the coloring of the plumage, and the exact drawing of the birds, can scarcely be surpassed.

The birds are represented in action amid the scenes, or on the plants and trees, most common to their habits, presenting a variety of land and marine views of floral and other productions of different climates and seasons. Its great dimensions have permitted eagles and other birds of the largest size to be represented in their natural size, and even in groups. "All is combined to ally," says Brunet, "in the most happy manner, the exactness of individual details with a living and animated representation of general forms." The plates were published without any text, to avoid the necessity of furnishing copies gratis to the public libraries in England, agreeably to the law of copyright. Trübner, p. 174, quotes the work with plain plates. I have never seen one in that condition. Owing to the destruction, by fire, of the stock and copperplates, the work has become extremely rare; and even small sections command high prices.

82 AUDUBON and BACHMAN. The Viviparous Quadrupeds of North America. By John James Audubon ... and the Rev. John Bachman ... .

New York: J. J. Audubon. 1845–48.

2 vols., folio, and LETTERPRESS in 3 vols., 8vo, half russia. This, with the preceding lot, forms a complete set of this magnificent work. We are unable to trace the sale of a complete set in any auction during the last twenty years. An opportunity to procure so fine a set should not be permitted to pass.

83 AUDUBON. The Birds of America, from Drawings made in the United States and other Territories. By J. J. Audubon, F.R.S. New York: George R. Lockwood. [n. d.]

245 BRITISH POETS. [A complete Collection of the British Poets, from Chaucer to Wordsworth; embracing the whole Works of the most distinguished Authors, accompanied with Biographical, Historical, and Critical Notices. Edited by F. J. Child.]

Boston: Little, Brown & Co. 1864–7.

130 vols., crown 8vo, cloth, uncut; LARGE PAPER.

The above series includes Akenside, Beattie, Burns, Butler, Byron, Campbell, Chatterton, Churchill, Coleridge, Collins, Cowper, Donne, Dryden, Falconer, Gay, Goldsmith, Gray, Herbert, Herrick, Hood, Keats, Marvell, Milton, Montgomery, Moore, Parnell, Tickell, Pope, Prior, Scott, Shakespeare, Shelley, Skelton, Southey, Spenser, Surrey, Swift, Thomson, Vaughan, Watts, Kirke White, Wordsworth, Wyatt, Young, and eight volumes of English and Scottish Ballads. This series of "The British Poets" is perhaps the most extensive in existence. The Chiswick collection, in 100 volumes, 12mo, includes a large number of authors; but many of the modern poets could not, under the British law of copyright, be included. Although the number of pages varies in the volumes, their relative bulk is equalized by the use of paper of different thickness.

The task of editing this collection was undertaken by Professor Child, of Cambridge, Mass., whose principal labor was in gathering the "English and Scottish Ballads," in eight volumes. Why Skelton should be included, and Chaucer omitted, it is difficult to say.

Sm. 4to, morocco extra, tooled edges; 17 PLATES on INDIA PAPER.

Stothard comes out in all his strength and feeling in this charming volume. It is, perhaps, the most perfect example of an illustrated English classic. The India proofs must rapidly increase in value. Several imitations of such of the designs as are out of copyright have been published, but their inferiority, as works of art, is very evident.

284 BUNYAN'S Pilgrim's Progress. With Illustrations by Charles Bennett, and a Preface by the Rev. Charles Kingsley. New York [i. e. London]. 1860.

4to, red morocco, gilt edge. In this edition the artist has successfully endeavored to represent the phyisognomical portraits of the characters of the story.

"This work has an ancient prototype in the 'Pelerinage de la Vie Humayne mis en prose, à la Val,' etc., 4to, Lyon, 1485. By some, its origin has been attributed to Barnard's 'Religious Allegory.'"—CAMPBELL. See Dunlop's "History of Fiction," and Burnett's "Specimens," III, pp. 421–426.

2 vols., 4to; a magnificent copy, in morocco extra, satin linings, broad gold borders inside, and inlaid with white calf, and roses in colors.

"He owes nothing to the poetry of other lands—he is the offspring of the soil: he is as natural to Scotland as the heath is to her hills; his variety is equal to his originality; his humor, his gayety, his tenderness, his pathos, come all in a breath; they come freely, for they come of their own accord; the contrast is never offensive; the comic slides easily into the serious, the serious into the tender, and the tender into the pathetic."—ALLAN CUNNINGHAM.

See "British Poets," and Pickering's "Aldine Poets."

299 BURR (A.) The Trial of Colonel Aaron Burr, on an Indictment for Treason, before the Circuit Court of the United States, held in Richmond, (Virginia), May Term,

See Dibdin's "Biblion.," p. 736, and Wood's "Ath. Oxon.," 1, p. 637. "This," says Burton, personating his objectors, "is a thing of meere industrie, a collection without wit or invention, a very toy." So men are valued, he adds, their labours vilified by fellowes of no worth themselves, as things of nought, who could not have done as much. "In an interval of vapours (remarks Bishop Kennet, in his curious 'Register and Chronicle') Burton would be extremely pleasant, and raise laughter in any company."—WRANGHAM.

3 vols., imp. elephant folio, half green levant morocco, gilt edges; includes one hundred and fifty VIEWS of the Architecture, Antiquities, and Landscape of Hin- dostan; THE PLATES ARE EXQUISITELY COLORED, in exact imitation of HIGHLY FINISHED DRAWINGS.

"It is almost unnecessary to say anything in commendation of this extraordinary work, which is, without exception, the most magnificent series of views ever produced in this, or any other country. The plates measure no less than 24 inches by 17 inches, and are colored in the style of drawings."—BOHN.

"The execution of these drawings is, indeed, masterly; there is every reason to confide in the fidelity of the representations; and the effect produced by this rich and splendid display of oriental scenery is truly striking. Everything is drawn with the most astonishing accuracy. The animals, trees, and plants, are studies for the Naturalist. The views were taken by Mr. Daniell, with singular perseverance and industry, during a long residence in India."—Monthly Magazine.

567 DIBDIN (T. F.) A Bibliographical Antiquarian and Picturesque Tour in France and Germany. By the Rev. Tho. Frognall Dibdin, F.R.S. S.A.

London: Payne and Foss. 1821.

3 vols., imp. 8vo, enlarged to 6 very thick vols., imp. 8vo, LARGE PAPER; most beautifully bound in olive morocco super-extra, the backs richly gilt, and very broad richly tooled borders of gold on the sides, tooled insides and joints, vellum linings and fly-leaves, gilt edges, by Charles Lewis, in his best style; containing numerous BEAUTIFUL PORTRAITS, PLATES, VIGNETTES, and WOODCUTS, all CHOICE PROOFS, with an Extraordinary Series of the PLATES in various stages of engraving, and the same plate very frequently in two, three, and four different states, viz.: ETCHINGS, UNFINISHED PROOFS, PROOFS BEFORE THE LETTERS, PROOFS UPON INDIA PAPER, and impressions after the Plates were cancelled, with the Faience Plate Colored after the Original Drawing. It has also the Series of Groups illustrating the Physiognomy, Manners, and Character of the People of France and Germany, by G. R. Lewis; 60 PLATES, PROOFS UPON INDIA PAPER, with numerous DUPLICATES in various stages of Engraving, some of which were afterwards altered; and a Privately Printed Statement respecting the Prices he charged for the Sketches and Drawings for this Work, which was afterwards suppressed.

This is decidedly the most splendid and magnificent copy in existence. Besides the immense number of PLATES, in their various states, of PROOFS, PRINTS, etc., which belong to this work, it is further illustrated with an extensive assemblage of ORIGINAL DRAWINGS and TRACINGS, PRIVATE PLATES, ETCHINGS, PORTRAITS, VIEWS, ANTIQUITIES, etc.

It contains upwards of 130 FINE ORIGINAL DRAWINGS, by the following eminent artists, viz.: 2 in colors by N. Bevin, 27 in colors by T. Bury, one in pen-and-ink by Coney, 1 in pencil by Dr. Dibdin, 7 in colors by B. Ferry, 6 in colors by G. Jones, 25 in pencil, pen-and-ink, chalk, colors, etc., by G. R. Lewis, with 22 original tracings also by G. R. Lewis, 2 in colors by T. Mercer, 6 in colors by J. P. Neale, 15 in colors by W. Price, 32 in colors by A. W. Pugin.

Also, 12 PRIVATE PLATES, including the PORTRAIT of Dr. Dibdin, by Hodgetts, of which there were only 75 impressions, Tour d'Eglise de St. Ouen à Rouen, the beautiful Portrait of Diana of Poictiers, engraved by Thomson, BRILLIANT PROOF BEFORE THE LETTERS, of which only 12 were taken, and a fine Proof after the letters, of which only 50 impressions were taken, when the plate was destroyed, with one of the three impressions struck off in its mutilated state, and a Proof on India Paper of the reduced copy; Portrait of Adam de Bartsch, engraved by Worthington; View of Closterneuburg Monastery, near Vienna; Portrait of M. Heerdegen; Portrait of M. Dominique Artaria, engraved by Grimm; 8 Plates of Bayeux Tapestry.

It is also further Illustrated with a collection of about 230 PORTRAITS, PLATES, ETCHINGS, etc., including some Choice Proofs before any Letters, many Proofs upon India Paper and other Proofs, among which are several Plates engraved for the second edition of the work, viz.: two Portraits of the Author, one of which is a Proof before the letters, the other the Prater at Vienna, Proof in three different states.

We conclude a necessarily long description of this SPLENDID SET OF BOOKS, with the remark, that no finer copy of this work can be produced. Sir George Henry Freeling, Bart., to whom it formerly belonged, was occupied upwards of twenty years in gathering the material of which it consists, sparing neither expense or labor, in gratifying his determination to make this the most valuable and extensively illustrated copy in existence.

"A work calculated to have as intoxicating an effect on the imagination of literary antiquaries, as the adventures of the heroes of the Round Table on all true knights, or the tales of the early American voyagers on the ardent spirits of their age; filling them with dreams of Mexican and Peruvian mines, and of the golden realm of El Dorado. It has not passed, however, without some hostile (though unfounded) remarks from the printers, binders, and librarians of France."—WRANGHAM.

568 DIBDIN. Sixty additional Plates to Illustrate the Original Edition of the Tour in France and Germany, by George Lewis. London. 1823.

3 parts, rl. 4to; INDIA PROOFS. These are extra illustrations, and published at £1 11s. 6d. per part.

569 DIBDIN. A Bibliographical Antiquarian and Picturesque Tour in the Northern Counties of England and in Scotland. By the Reverend Thomas Frognall Dibdin, D.D. London: James Bohn. MDCCCXXXVIII.

2 vols., imp. 8vo extended to 3 vols., by the addition of all the cancelled leaves and other additional matter; a beautiful and spotless copy—UNIQUE.

In this work the author concluded his tours, but failed to give to this the interest that attached to the southern trip, whether from a lack of material or from having written himself out, is uncertain. The book, however, is an essential companion to France and Germany; and, as it describes some collections that have ceased to exist, possesses an historical interest.

570 DIBDIN. The Bibliographical Decameron; or, Ten Days Pleasant Discourse upon Illuminated Manuscripts, and Subjects connected with Early Engravings, Typography, and Bibliography. By the Rev. T. F. Dibdin.
London: G. and W. Nicol. 1817.

3 vols., imp. 8vo, boards, uncut; numerous PORTRAITS and ILLUSTRATIVE PLATES, many of them upon INDIA PAPER; a spotless copy.

The dialogue is cleverly sustained, and the occasional socratic form affords opportunity for numerous sallies of wit, while the information conveyed is of more value than that contained in any other of the Doctor's works which affect greater sincerity.

"This work may be considered as a continuation of the "Bibliomania," the same characters being introduced in the dialogues. From the information which it contains, and the splendor of the decorations and printing, it will ever be considered as a model of excellence and good taste in typography and the arts. Both the copperplates and the woodcuts which embellished the work have been destroyed."—LOWNDES.

571 DIBDIN. The Bibliomania; or, Book Madness, Containing some Account of the History, Symptoms, and Cure of this Fatal Disease. In an Epistle addressed to Richard Heber, Esq. London. 1809.

Cranmer, Lord Burleigh, Lady Jane Gray, Queen Elizabeth, Queen Anne, Holbein, Addison, Earl Spencer, Bp. Burnet, Lord Clarendon, W. Roscoe, and Wm. Lambarde; VIEWS of St. Alban's Abbey, British Museum, Venice, and the Bodleian Library. These PLATES are beautifully inlaid by George Trent.

573 DIBDIN. Bibliomania; or Book Madness: A Bibliographical Romance, in Six Parts. Illustrated with Cuts. London. 1811.

2 vols. in 1, old calf; good copy.

574 DIBDIN. Bibliomania; or Book-Madness; A Bibliographical Romance. Illustrated with Cuts. By Thomas Frognall Dibdin, D.D. New and Improved Edition ... including a Key to the assumed characters in the Drama. London: H. G. Bohn. MDCCCXLII

Rl. 8vo, boards, uncut.

This celebrated work, which unites the entertainment of a romance with the most valuable information on all bibliographical subjects, has long been scarce. This edition was undertaken by Mr. Walmsly. It contains a Key to the characters, etc., and a supplement, edited by Dr. Dibdin himself. Mr. Allan's copy sold for $100.

"You have contrived to strew flowers over a path which, in other hands, would have proved a very dull one; and all Bibliomanes must remember you long, as he who first united their antiquarian details with good-humored raillery and cheerfulness."—Sir Walter Scott to Dr. Dibdin.

"The 'Bibliomania' is evidently formed, in the first instance, on the plan of honest Isaac Walton's 'Complete Angler;' with conspicuous marks of the author's being deeply versed in the 'Battle of the Books,' and a familiar acquaintance with old English literature, and occasionally with the digressions of Yorick. Under the shape of dramatic dialogue, the reader is equally entertained and instructed; the abstruser parts, with the historic details, being thrown into the form of notes. It would now be useless to pass an encomium on this work, as its merits are so fully established as to have more than doubled the original price of a volume now with difficulty to be obtained."—Gent's Mag.

576 [DIBDIN. The same.] London. 1832.

8vo, boards, uncut. This is, in fact, a continuation of the "Bibliomania," in the form of a tour through the different booksellers' shops of London, Oxford, and Reading.

577 DIBDIN. Bibliotheca Spenceriana; or, A Descriptive Catalogue of the Books Printed in The Fifteenth Century, and of many valuable first Editions, in the Library of George John Earl Spencer, K.G., &c., &c., &c. By the Reverend Thomas Frognall Dibdin. London: Printed for the Author, by Bulmer & Co. 1814–1815.

4 vols., imp. 8vo, gilt top, uncut; fine copy. This valuable work unquestionably stands at the head of its class as the best bibliographical description of one of the most extensive and finest collections of rare early literature ever formed.

578 DIBDIN. Descriptive Catalogue of Books printed in the Fifteenth Century, lately forming part of the Library of the Duke di Cassano Serra. London. 1823.

Imp. 8vo, cloth, uncut.

579 [DIBDIN.] The Director. A Weekly Literary Journal, containing—I. Essays on Subjects of Literature, etc. II. Bibliographiana, account of rare and curious books, and of the book-sales, from the close of the Seventeenth Century. III. Royal Institution. IV. British Gallery. London. 1807.

2 vols., 8vo, half calf. The bibliographical portion was written by Dr. Dibdin.

580 DIBDIN. An Introduction to the Knowledge of Rare and Valuable Editions of the Greek and Latin Classics. Fourth Edition, greatly enlarged and corrected. London. 1827.

2 vols., 8vo, half morocco, uncut, and interleaved.

"This edition is entirely rewritten, and contains, for the first time, an account of the best editions of the Hebrew Bibles and the Greek and Latin Fathers."—LOWNDES.

581 DIBDIN. The Library Companion; or the Young Man's Guide, and the Old Man's Comfort, in the Choice of a Library. By Rev. T. F. Dibdin. Second Edition. London: Printed for Harding, Triphook & Lepard. MDCCCXXV.

582 DIBDIN. Poems. London. 1799.

8vo, pp. x, 117, boards, uncut; fine copy; suppressed by the author.

"In the first edition of the 'Bibliomania' is a curious note respecting these poems, from which it appears that five hundred copies were printed, the major part of which were destroyed. 'My only consolatiou is,' says the author, 'that the volume is exceedingly rare.' Brockett's copy sold for £1 18s., and Bindley's for £1 18s."—LOWNDES.

583 DIBDIN. Reminiscences of a Literary Life; By the Reverend Thomas Frognall Dibdin, D.D. London: John Major. MDCCCXXXVI.

2 vols., imp. 8vo; LARGE PAPER, with proof impressions of the PORTRAITS and PLATES; fine copy, russia extra, with borders of gold, and joints, uncut; scarce.

Very few copies of this interesting work were printed on large paper. This was the late Miss Currer's SUBSCRIPTION COPY, who has illustrated it with several additional private plates and portraits, two long and interesting autograph letters to her from the author, and various printed particulars relating to him and his works. It contains the INDEX, often wanting. Among the plates is a PORTRAIT of Dibdin, from a private plate; VIEW of Eshton Hall, the seat of Miss Currer; PROOF of the Battle of Waterloo. There are also some AUTOGRAPHIC NOTES on the margin by Miss Currer, some of which are characterized by more strength than elegance in their diction. She actually gives the lie to some of the Reverend Doctor's statements.

584 DIBDIN. [Another copy.] London. 1836.

2 vols., 8vo, boards, uncut; PORTRAIT; SMALL PAPER; with AUTOGRAPH of the author, being a presentation copy to Frederick Verachter; contains the INDEX, which is frequently deficient.

585 DIBDIN. Typographical Antiquities; or the History of Printing in England Scotland and Ireland; containing Memoirs of our Ancient Printers, and a Register of the Books Printed by them. Begun by the late Joseph Ames, F.R.S & A.SS. Considerably augmented by William Herbert, of Cheshunt, Herts; And now greatly enlarged, with Copious Notes, and illustrated with appropriate Engravings; Comprehending the History of English Literature, and a View of the Progress of the Art of Engraving, in Great Britain; By the Rev. Thomas Frognall Dibdin. London: Printed by William Savage. [n. d.] Vol. II; Printed for William Miller. 1812. Vol. III; Printed for William Miller. 1816. Vol. IV; London: Longman. 1819.

4 vols., 4to, half calf, uucut; numerous PORTRAITS and FACSIMILES.

Indispensable to the collector of early English books. Later writers on the same snbject are largely indebted to the successive authors of this work. Notwithstanding its errors, which are numerous, it is the most complete work of its kind.

586 DICKENS (C.) American Notes for General Circulation. London. 1842.

2 vols., post 8vo, cloth, uncut. From the library of Mr. David Roberts (the artist).

597 DOOLITTLE (M.) Historical Sketch of the Congregational Church, in Belchertown, Mass., from its organization; and Early History of the Place, By Hon. Mark Doolittle. Northampton. 1852.

12mo, pp. 264, cloth.

598 DORAN (Dr.) Annals of the English Stage, from Thomas Betterton to Edmund Kean, Actors, Authors, Audiences. New York. 1865.

2 vols., imp. 8vo; LARGE PAPER; 161 copies printed. The 2 vols. extended to five vols., rl. 8vo, by numerous plates inserted; half polished levant morocco extra, gilt top.

This UNIQUE copy contains some six hundred portraits and character illustrations, extending from the days of Betterton to Charles Matthews. No English actor or actress of celebrity is omitted from this collection, and of the most celebrated there are various portraits and representations in their best parts on the stage. Many of the impressions of the plates are choice proofs, and all, at the present day, are difficult to be procured. The preparation of the work in London, with the best facilities and opportunities of an experienced collector, occupied the leisure hours of over two years. The limited number of good impressions capable of being struck off from a copperplate engraving—the only means in use when most of these designs were made—render the present work of unusual rarity and value.

599 DORCHESTER. History of the Town of Dorchester,

Massachusetts. By a Committee of the Dorchester Antiquarian and Historical Society.

Boston: Ebenezer Clapp, Jr. 1859.

8vo, pp. xxi, 672, half calf, gilt.

2 vols., 8vo, half calf, gilt top, uncut; the ENGRAVINGS on Wood, by J. Berryman; best edition, with numerous FACSIMILES.

Douce figures in Dibdin's "Bibliomania" and in his "Biographical Decameron," under the name of Prospero.

"I look upon this work as a sort of Hortus Shakspearianus; the research and learning bestowed on it are immense."—DIBDIN.

"Of this literary writer, notices are copiously strewed over the three volumes of the 'Bibliogr. Decam.' The work itself, amidst an infinite variety of curious matter, discusses the man in the moon, whom Ritson has endeavoured to identify with the stick-gathering Sabbath-breaker of 'Nuub.' xv, p. 32, and Chaucer conceived to have stolen the sticks in question, the weight of which kept him from climbing nearer to heaven than the moon. The Italians deem him to be Cain, and Dante, in his 'Inferno,' periphrases that planet accordingly by Caino e le spine. The Jews find in him their Jacob; the Ceylonites call the animal, there imprisoned, a hare; and, among the Chinese, the moon is represented by a rabbit pounding rice in a mortar."—WRANGHAM.

The music to each song is by Blow, Purcell, etc.

"The Pieces of this author are remarkable for licentiousness, looseness of sentiment, and indelicacy of wit, yet are very far from being devoid of merit."

"Poor Tom Durfey! who would have expected to have seen his witty works enshrined in the martyrology of books, a punishment no doubt owing to his attachment to the Tory interest. It appears that the members of the renowned Kit Cat Club requested their founder to bake some mutton pies with Durfey's works under them."—J. Y.

662 ELIOT (John). The | Holy Bible: | containing the | Old Testament | and the New. Translated into the | Indian Language, | and | Ordered to be Printed by the Commissioners of the Vnited Colonies in New-England, | At the Charge, and with the Consent of the | Corporation in England | For the Propagation of the Gospel amongst the Indians | in New-England. Cambridge: Printed by Samuel Green and Marmaduke Johnson. | MDCLXIII. |

Sm. 4to, old blue morocco, gilt edges. Duplicate from the Bodleian Library.

Collation: Title, 1 l.; Dedication to King Charles II., 2 l; List of Books, 1 l.; Text, A to M m m m m in 4s. Title: Wusku | Wuttestamentum, | Nul-Sordumum | Jesus Christ | Nuppoquohwussuaeneumun. | Cambridge: | Printed by Samuel Green and Marmaduke Johnson. | MDCLXI. | 1 l.; verso, blank; Text: Matthew to the end of Luke, sigs. A^2 to verso of L^4; John to Rev. Aa to verso of Xx^3, all in 4s; 1 leaf blank. VVame—Ketoohomae uketoo-homaongash | DAVID. U to N in 4s Noowomoo, 1 l. Size of printed page in full, $6\frac{5}{8}$ inches by $4\frac{5}{8}$ inches, OF THE LEAF, $7\frac{5}{8}$ BY $5\frac{7}{8}$ INCHES.

This is, without doubt, the finest copy that has, for many years, been offered for sale and is believed to be the best, in point of size, preservation, and internal condition (if we except the Bodleian Library stamp, on the reverse of the titles) of any on this side of the Atlantic. The Allan copy was one-eighth of an inch shorter. In this copy PROOF LEAVES are to be met with at every few pages, while in the Allan copy there were few or none. The binding, which is, perhaps, the original, is in fine order. In short, it is a MATCHLESS COPY.

Since its purchase, in Jan. 1868, for MR. RICE, the LEAF OF CONTENTS has been supplied from another copy, and it is now absolutely complete. It brought $1130 at the Bruce Sale.

Among the many points of interest which this book possesses, not the least is the fact, that it is the language of a nation no longer in existence, and is almost the only monument of the race; another, that it is the first BIBLE published in this country. The very sight of it caused the quaint Cotton Mather to exclaim: "Behold, ye Americans, the greatest honor that ever you were partakers of! This is the only BIBLE that ever was printed in all America, from the very foundation of the World."

The names of the Books are retained as in the English versions, and such words as were unknown to the Indians are retained with an Indian termination, such as cherubim*lah*, etc. The longest word is (Mark, i, 40): Wutteppesittukqussunnoowehtunkquoh, signifying "kneeling down to him."

According to Thomas ("Hist. of Printing"), Twenty Copies only of the Dedication to King Charles were printed; but Dr. O'Callaghan expresses some doubts on this point.

JOHN ELIOT, the celebrated missionary among the Indians, was nearly sixty years pastor of the church at Roxbury, in Massachusetts. He is usually called. "The Apostle of the Indians." He made every exertion to promote the welfare of the Indian tribes—he stimulated many clergymen to engage in the missionary work; and, although he mourned over the stupidity of many, who preferred darkness to light, yet he lived to see twenty-four of the copper-colored aborigines fellow-preachers of the Gospel of Christ. He possessed an influence over the Indians which no other missionary could obtain, and was their shield in 1675, during King Philip's war, when some of the people of Massachusetts, actuated by the most infuriate spirit, intended to have destroyed them. He suffered every abuse for his friendship to them; but nothing could quench the divine charity which glowed in his heart. His firmness—his zeal—his benevolence at this period, increased the pure lustre of his character.

ELIOT'S great work was this INDIAN BIBLE. It was three years in the press, and is a very great TYPOGRAPHICAL CURIOSITY; and, it is said, that there are not now more than two persons living who can read the language in which it is written.

Cotton Mather, in his "Magnalia," mentions that Eliot wrote the whole of this great work wirh one pen. Thomas, in his "History of Printing," supposes, if this was so, it must have been a metal pen, and not a goose quill. That, however, by no means follows.

The Corporation for Propagating the Gospel among the Indians seem to have felt great interest in the publication of this BIBLE. In 1660, they engaged Marmaduke Johnson, and sent him to America to assist in printing that BIBLE. And, in a letter dated "Cooper's Hall in London, April 28. 1660," and directed to the Commissioners of the United Colonies, they write:

"Wee have out of our desire to further a worke of soe greate consernment, agreed with an able printer for three yeares upon the tearmes and conditions enclosed. Wee desire you at the earnest request of Mr. Johnson, the printer, and for his incourragement in this undertaking of printing the Bible in the Indian language, his name may bee mentioned with others as a printer and person that hath been instrumentall therein; for whose diet, lodging and washing wee desire you to take care of."

The Commissioners, in their answer, say:

"The printers doubt not but to print a sheete every weeke, and compute the whole to amount to a hundred and fifty sheets," which the collation shows to be nearly the fact.

663 ELIOT. Mamvsse Wunneetupanatamwe Up-Biblum God Naneeswe Nukkone Testament kah wonk Wusku Testament. Ne quoshkinnumuk nashpe Wuttinncumoh Christ noh asoowesit John Eliot. Nahohtôeu outchetôt Printeuoomuk. Cambridge: Printcuoop nashpe Samuel Green. MDCLXXXV.

This second edition, unfortunately, lacks the pages before Genesis, Chap. IX, 28, and the title-page is copied from another source. It is otherwise perfect, and a fair copy, with a prefatory note by Gabriel Furman, from which we have made extracts in the note to Lot 662.

Mr. Eliot also had the superintendence of this edition; and, in his letter to the Hon. Robert Boyle, President of the Corporation, he acknowledges the reception of nine hundred pounds sterling, in three payments, for carrying it through the press. Eliot, however, had to give part of his salary towards printing the work.

This edition went to press in the year 1680, and was not completed till the beginning of 1686. Eliot died, May 20, 1690, aged about eighty-six years, saying his labors were poor and small, and exhorting those who surrounded his bed to pray. His last words were, "Welcome, joy."

For further particulars concerning this BIBLE, the reader may consult "O'Callaghan's "List of Bibles," and Sabin's "Catalogue of Allan's Library," No. 1013,

The author declares the theories of Grotius, De Laet, Hornius, and other writers on the origin of the Americans untenable—that America was peopled (before the Deluge) by a race superior to the present—that the Deluge did not extend to America, and that the principal theories of the Deluge are erroneous, particularly that of Whiston. He gives his own theories on all these points, as well as upon many others of equally high interest, not excluding the Origin of the Negro.

754 FOUCQUET (J.) Œuvres de Jehann Foucquet.

Paris: L. Curmer. 1866.

2 vols., 4to, half crushed levant morocco, polished, gilt top, uncut; three hundred copies only published, for subscribers.

This exquisite reproduction of the works of Foucquet is no less a monument to the 15th century illuminator and painter than to the beautiful art of chromo-lithography—an art which Curmer has done as much to refine as any man in Europe—witness the "Hours of Anne of Britanny," "Imitation of Christ," etc. Foucquet was painter to Charles VII and Louis XI, Pope Eugene IV, and miniaturist to Stephen Chevalier, Treasurer of France, etc., and his works extended from about 1443 to 1520.

These works consist either of entire pages of illuminated miniatures or of beautiful floriated borders, FACSIMILES of the original, in gold and colors. Vol. II contains a complete exposition of the illuminations, etc., and a life of Foucquet, with additional ILLUMINATIONS, and many WOODCUTS.

Folio, half brown morocco, gilt top; ORIGINAL EDITION.

"This work appears to have been much celebrated in its time, having been frequently reprinted, and translated into French, Dutch, German, etc."—RICH.

"The author of this work was probably 'Parson of Deale.' In the second and third editions, after expurging from the dedication certain passages in honor of Fairfax, the remainder were dexterously converted into a preface; and the 22d chapter, as containing particulars relative to the artifices used by the 'Pafulins' to convert the writer, totally omitted. It was afterwards printed separately."—WRANGHAM.

Southey informs us that part of the book is taken verbatim et literatim from an old translation of Gomara.

London: ... | Christopher Wilkinson. ... | MDCLXXXVIII. |

Folio, calf, gilt; very fine copy; scarce.

"A gentle and trusting spirit, rather than a wise one, proud of being a son of one of the unscrupulous conquerors of Peru, but always betraying the weaker nature of his mother, who was of the blood royal of the Incas, and never entirely forgetting the glories of his Indian race, or the cruel injuries they had suffered at the hands of Spain. The 'Commentaries' are a striking and interesting book, showing much of the spirit of the old Chronicles."—Ticknor.

813 GESTA ROMANORUM: or, Entertaining Moral Stories; Invented by the Monks as a Fire-Side Recreation; and Commonly Applied in their Discourses from the Pulpit: whence the most Celebrated of our Own Poets and Others, from the Earliest Times, have extracted their Plots. Translated from the Latin, with Preliminary Observations and Copious Notes. By the Rev. Charles Swan. [Motto]. In Two Volumes.

London: Rivington. M,DCCC,XXIV.

2 vols., 12mo, half morocco, uncut; scarce.

One of the oldest story books extant, from which our early English poets, especially Gower, Chaucer, and Shakespeare, borrowed largely.

"The foundation of Shakespeare's story of the Three Caskets, in the 'Merchant of Venice,' and of the Jew's Bond, is to be found in this favorite collection; and it must be confessed that there is a much greater and more beautiful variety in the original, which Shakespeare has followed, than in Gower."—WARTON's "History of English Poetry."

934 HARINGTON (Sir John). The Metamorphosis of Ajax, a Cloacinean Satire: with the Anatomy, and the Apology; to which is added, Ulysses upon Ajax; edited by S. W. Singer. London: C. Whittingham. 1814.

8vo, red crushed levant morocco extra, by W. Mathews; PORTRAIT and CURIOUS CUTS; splendid copy.

Only 100 copies were reprinted from the very rare original edition printed in 1596, priced, in the "Bibliotheca Anglo-Poetica," £40. The avowed purport is the description of a species of water-closet which Sir John Harington had invented and erected; but he has contrived to make it the vehicle of much diverting matter, evincing his extensive reading. He has also interspersed numerous satiric touches and allusions to contemporary persons and events, which were, no doubt, the cause of its great popularity at the time of its publication. Lowndes remarks that it combines much learning with more humor, and the author was forbid the court for writing it. He also observes, "in this new edition, some objectionable passages have been omitted," which is a mistake; passages were not omitted, but a few words are indicated by their initials, followed by dashes.

935 HARLAN (R.) A Description of the Mamniferous Animals Inhabiting North America. Philadelphia. 1825.

12 vols., 8vo, half calf, gilt. Contains a vast number of curious tracts, some of which relate to America, and are so scarce that they would sell for one hundred dollars and upwards each.

"This valuable political, historical, and antiquarian record, is an indispensable auxiliary in the illustration of British history."—LOWNDES.

937 HARPER'S Pictorial History of the Rebellion. New York. 1867–8.

2 vols., folio, sheets folded; many hundred WOODCUTS.

938 HARRINGTON (J.) The Oceana and other Works. London. 1771.

4to, calf, gilt; fine copy.

"Against the 'Oceana,' Wren drew up his 'Monarchy Asserted,' and Baxter his 'Holy Commonwealth;' and at the Restoration Harrington was ill-treated, in consequence of having written it; yet, by Lord Oxford's desire, it was reprinted! Hume pronounces it 'the only valuable model of a commonwealth that has ever been offered to the public.'"—WRANGHAM.

939 HARRIOT (John). Struggles Through Life, exemplified in the Travels and Adventures in Europe, Asia and America, of John Harriot. New York. 1809.

3 vols., 12mo, half morocco. A large portion of this curious book relates to America, and especially New York, the author having passed much of his life there.

1080 HUMBOLDT. Atlas Pittoresque, ou Vues de Cordillères et Monuments des Pueples Indigènes de l'Amérique. Paris. 1810.

Large folio, half morocco, uncut; printed on vellum paper, and ILLUSTRATED with 69 ELEGANT PLATES, PROOF IMPRESSIONS, many of which are colored. From the library of the Emperor Maximilian, with his Book Plate. Published at 756 francs. The most beautiful and generally interesting of Humboldt's works, rarely found perfect.

Humboldt traced, with the hand of a master, the outline of a vast picture, which present and future travellers can only assist in filling up. In this work the picture-writing of the Mexicans first received the attention and the ample treatment which are due to a literature as strange and important in the records of the new world, as that of Egypt in the old.

Together with the Monuments of New Spain. By M. Dupaix: with their respective Scales of Measurement and accompanying Descriptions. The whole illustrated by many valuable Inedited Manuscripts. By Lord Kingsborough. The Drawings on Stone, by A. Aglio. In Nine Volumes.

London: Henry G. Bohn. M.DCCC.XLVIII.

Folio, half green morocco, gilt top. A vast store-house of invaluable materials for the history of Mexico. When, some four centuries ago, the enterprise of Spanish navigators opened the vast continent of America to the admiration of Europe, the civilization of the New World was found to be concentrated in two spots, and two only, of that enormous territory. One of these favored regions was Peru; the other was Mexico. It was in Mexico, especially, that art, politics, and science, had received their greatest development. There the Spaniards found an organized state, an ancient polity, an opulent capital, an exalted dynasty, a formidable priesthood, and a people well skilled in mechanical and decorative arts. So great, in fact, was the proficiency of the Mexican workmen, so elaborate the system of government, and so impressive the whole evidence of wealth and grandeur, that for some time the civilization of Mexico was regarded as superior to that of Europe.

1388 M'KINNEY (T. L.) History of the Indian Tribes of North America. With Biographical Sketches and Anecdotes of the principal Chiefs. Embellished with 120 Portraits from the Indian Gallery, in the Department of War, at Washington, by Thomas L. M'Kinney, late of the Indian Department, Washington, and James Hall, Esq., of Cincinnati. Washington. 1838–44.

3 vols, folio, elegantly bound in half morocco, gilt top, by Bradstreet.

As early as 1824, the practice was begun of taking portraits of the principal Indians who came to Washington, and depositing them in the War Department. Under the management of Col. M'Kinney, Superintendent of Indian Affairs, the number rapidly increased, till a very interesting gallery was formed. They were chiefly painted by Mr. King, an artist of high repute, who, by frequent opportunities of studying the subject of his pencil, has been remarkably successful in transferring to his canvas the strong lineaments of the Indian countenance. Col. M'Kinney conceived the plan of making this rare and curious collection more valuable to the world by publishing a series of engraved portraits exactly copied and colored from these paintings. With each portrait is connected a biographical sketch of the individual whom it is intended to represent, drawn from original materials, and interspersed with anecdotes and narrations, many of which are spirited and strikingly graphic. The work contains also a historical account of the various Indian tribes within the borders of the United States—a valuable contribution to Indian history.

Mr. Malone said, that "if Marlowe had lived to finish his 'Hero and Leander,' he perhaps might have contested the palm with Shakespeare in his 'Venus and Adonis.'" Another able critic says of it: "It is scarcely hazarding too much to assert that a more exquisite specimen of poetical ideas, clothed in elegant and harmonious lauguage, does not exist. Shakespeare adverts to it thus:

'A story of deep love,
How young Leander crossed the Hellespont.'"

"No prose writer of the sixteenth century has been so generally read, nor probably given so much delight. There can be but one opinion of the felicity and brightness of his genius."—HALLAM's "Literature of Europe."

"See 'Retrosp. Rev.,' II, 207–227. With Montaigne, says Mosheim, many have classed Pomponatius, Bodinus, Rabelais, Des Perieres, Doletus, Charron, Leo X., Bembo, Politian, Bruno, Ochinus, Paracelsus, and Taurellus—as enemies to all religion. But many of those thus charged, he adds, were 'either innocent, or profane to a less degree.' Montaigne's characteristic it is, to be simple. Pope speaks of showing himself

'as plain
As downright Shippen, or as old Montaigne."

Montaigne, however, cannot be acquitted of great vanity and great indecency, not to add some scepticism."—WRANGHAM.

1567 MUSÉE FRANCAIS ET MUSÉE ROYALE Recueil des plus beaux Tableaux, Statues, et Bas-Reliefs qui existaient au louvre avant 1813, avec l'Explication des sujets, et des discours historiques sur la peinture, la sculpture, et la gravure. Par Duchesne Ainé.

A Paris: A. et W. Galignani. [n. d.]

6 vols., folio, half bound. One of the most magnificent works that ever issued from the Parisian press, representing the matchless collection which formerly graced the Louvre, combining, as it did, nearly all the excellence of which the various countries on the continent could boast in painting and sculpture, and is, unquestionably, the grandest production of modern times. It exhibits a series of engravings (by the most distinguished artists) of such a collection of paintings as can never again be united. It is almost unnecessary to observe that this work is not a mere collection of prints, as it contains many luminous and masterly dissertations upon the state of the arts in different ages, observations upon the style, excellence, and defects of the various schools of painting, a minute description of every painting, etc., drawn with extreme care and correctness. The present is an early copy, much superior to some of a later issue.

[Also] A | Reply | to | General Joseph Reed's | Remarks, | on a Late Publication | in the | Independent Gazetteer, With some Observations on his | Address | to the | People of Pennsylvania. | [By John Cadwallader.]

Philadelphia: | Printed and Sold by T. Bradford, in Front-Street, the Fourth | Door below the Coffee-House, MDCCLXXXIII. |

8vo, pp. 54.

These ORIGINAL EDITIONS are two of the rarest pieces in Pennsylvvania literature. The occasion of the dispute was the assertion, by Gen. Cadwallader, that in Dec., 1776, before the battle of Trenton, Gen. Reed was so much depressed by the sad state of American affairs as to meditate withdrawing from the service. This assertion Gen. Reed denies, and Gen. Cadwallader defends, in very heated and bitter language. The dispute was revived on the publication of the ninth volume of Mr. Bancroft's history. See Reed (W. B.)

The only set of which we can trace the sale was Mr. Hazewell's copy, sold May, 1859. The same volume contains—Adams's History of the Dispute with America. 1784. Paine's CommonSense. 1776. Paine's Letter to Raynal. 1782. Etc.

1862 REED. A Report of the Reed and Cadwallader Pamphlets. With an Appendix. MDCCCLXIII.

1962 SCHEDEL (H.) Chronicon Nurembergense, auctore Hartmanno Schedel. Registrum hujus operis libri cronicarum cũ figuris et ymagibus ab inicio mũdi. Nuremberge: Anthonius Koberger. 1493.

Folio, in the original binding; GOTHIC LETTER. This copy measures 18¼ inches in height by 12½ inches in width, which renders it, probably, ONE OF THE LARGEST ever offered for sale here. It has always been styled, by way of distinction, the "NUREMBERG CHRONICLE," and scarcely any volume has been so celebrated for a long series of years. The ENGRAVINGS, which are upwards of 2200 in number, are in WOOD, and were executed by Michael Wolgemut and Pleydenwurf, the former of whom was the master of Albert Dürer; the subjects are PORTRAITS OF ILLUSTRIOUS CHARACTERS, VIEWS OF TOWNS, etc. This volume contains the supplemental leaves, which are often deficient.

The original edition of one of the most extraordinary and curious productions of the fifteenth century, which can never fail to be highly interesting to the lover of ancient engraving and printing. The fine woodcuts present the first successful imitation of the cross-hatchings of a pen drawing. If Koberger had printed only this chronicle, he would have done enough to place his name among the most distinguished of his typographical brethren; but he has other and nearly equal claims to a very marked celebrity. See the "Bibliotheca Spenceriana," where no less than twenty-six pages are devoted to an account of the work, accompanied by facsimiles of many of the very singular woodcuts. Hearne, in the preface of "Robert of Gloucester," says: "For my part, the oftener I consult this chronicle, the more I wonder at the things in it, and I cannot but esteem the book as extremely pleasant, useful, and curious, by reason of these very odd cuts."

1987 SEROUX D'AGINCOURT. History of Art by its Monuments from its Decline in the 4th Century to its Restoration in the 16th. Translated from the French, by Owen Jones. London. 1847.

3 vols. in 1, folio; contains 328 PLATES, including 3335 subjects on architecture, sculpture, and painting. This fine work was the first in which the idea of exhibiting the progress of art, by a series of its noblest monuments, was perfectly carried out. By a series of accurate engravings from celebrated monuments, we trace the transitions of art from the classic period to our own times. Sculpture, painting, the art of illumination, and the art of engraving on wood, on gems, and on medals, are similarly represented.

Folio, red morocco, gilt extra; LARGEST PAPER.

2003 SHAKESPEARE. The Works of William Shakespeare, The plays edited from the Folio of MDCXXIII., with Various Readings from all the Editions and all the Commentators, Notes, Introductory Remarks, A Historical Sketch of the Text, An Account of the Rise and Progress of the English Drama, A Memoir of the Poet, and An Essay upon his Genius. By Richard Grant White. Boston. 1857.

12 vols., 8vo, half olive morocco, gilt top, uncut; PORTRAITS AND WOODCUTS; LARGE PAPER; only 48 copies printed; very scarce.

"Each play is preceded by an introduction, remarkably well digested and condensed, giving an account of the text, and of the sources from which Shakespeare helped himself to plots or incidents. His notes prove him to be capable of profound as well as delicate and sympathetic exegesis, and we think that a careful collation justifies us in saying that in acute discrimination of æsthetic shades of expression, and often of textual niceties, Mr. White is superior to any previous editor."—LOWELL.

The buyer of this lot will have the privilege of purchasing the three following works at the same rate per volume. It is unnecessary to observe that they form a desirable adjunct to the foregoing.

2004 SHAKESPEARE'S SCHOLAR; being Historical and Critical Studies of his Text, Characters, and Commentators, with an Examination of Mr. Collier's Folio of 1632. By Richard Grant White. New York. 1854.

2132 SPOONER (S.) A Biographical History of the Fine Arts; or, Memoirs of the Lives and Works of Eminent Painters, Engravers, Sculptors, and Architects. From the earliest ages to the present time. Alphabetically arranged, and condensed from the best authorities, including the works of Vasari, Lanzi Kugler, Dr. Waagen, Bryan, Pilkington, Walpole, Sir Charles Eastlake, and Mrs. Jameson. With Chronological Tables of Artists and their Schools, Plates of Monograms, etc. By S. Spooner, M.D. New York. 1865.

2 vols. extended to 10 vols., stout 4to, by the insertion of OVER ONE THOUSAND ENGRAVED PORTRAITS, LANDSCAPES, ETCHINGS, DRAWINGS, WOODCUTS, etc., half crimson levant morocco, gilt tops; LARGE PAPER. Of all the works usually illustrated, there is scarcely one which offers more scope for instructive amusement than this dictionary, and we cannot do better than print, with some verbal alterations, the description in Mr. Bouton's catalogue:

"The illustrations in these volumes are of great variety, and possess unusual excellence, being the gleanings of many years by a diligent collector from the London print emporiums, reinforced by numerous additions of rare plates from the continent. No prominent subject has been neglected, while of many there are various illustrations. The variety of design of which such a work admits is very great, permitting not only portraits of the artists, but exhibitions of their works, and specimens of engravers and peculiar styles of art. All of these various sources of interest have been provided for in these richly decorated volumes. They have been prepared in London with great care, are all, when necessary, tastefully and carefully inlaid, and exhibit, as a whole, a comprehensive view of the fine arts, embracing different countries and eras, from the revival of painting to the present day. The cost of the preparation of such a work can be properly estimated only by those who have made similar attempts at illustration. In this country it would be impossible to procure the engravings, but, wherever procured, the expense in the destruction of costly works, to say nothing of the long-continued search for the material, must be very great. The work, as now perfected, invites careful examination, and will well repay the attention of students of art."

The work is based on Bryan's "Dictionary," concerning whom a writer in the Literary Gazette justly remarks: "No private individual has been more conspicuous in the annals of British art than the late Michael Bryan, Esq.; and very few, if any, of his contemporaries have had so much influence in all matters of refined connoisseurship as he exercised for a number of years. His skill and judgment in pictures were looked up to as decisive of the merit or demerit of paintings, whether derived from ancient masters or from the easels of modern genius, and many hundred thousand pounds have been expended upon his dicta in affairs of this kind. His valuable publication, the 'Biographical and Critical Dictionary of Engravers,' is a great improvement as well as enlargement of Pilkington's design, and is an evidence of the diligence and talents of the author, which will hand down his name with distinction to the latest posterity."

Notwithstanding the comparatively recent date of this publication, we question if any of our public libraries contain a complete set of this GRAND SERIES OF BOOKS.

Strange to say, the National Library at Washington lacks some of the volumes. So the Astor Library, the Public Library at Boston, etc., are in the same condition. This set is complete, with the exception of one vol. of the Crustacea, and Pickering on the Geographical Distribution of Animals—which last is not unfrequently to be found.

An opportunity to procure so fine and so complete a set has never occurred since the publication of the work, and is not likely to occur again; and we venture to suggest to those who now only possess part of a set, that they should secure this and sell their duplicates.

Very scarce in this state. A MAGNIFICENT COPY.

This is, without doubt, the most beautifully illustrated edition of "Honest Izaak's" charming Pastoral ever published. To the late tasteful publisher, Mr. Pickering, its production was literally a labor of love. Neither time nor expense were spared to render it worthy of the arts and the importance of the subject, and the result was a union of literary and artistic talent which has rarely been equalled and never surpassed.

"A work the most singular in its kind, breathing the very spirit of contentment, of quiet and unaffected philanthropy, and interspersed with some fine relics of old poetry, songs, and ballads."—BOWLES.

He exhibits a striking contrast between the force of nature and habit; when instructing you how to impale a worm for angling, he bids you "handle him tenderly withal, and treat him like a friend."

5 vols., 4to, extended to 10, blue morocco, gilt top, uncut.

This SPLENDIDLY ILLUSTRATED BOOK forms one of the most desirable works in this Catalogue. It is the last work of the GREATEST AMERICAN AUTHOR concerning the GREATEST and most HONORED name in AMERICAN HISTORY.

This copy was formerly part of the very fine library collected by Mr. W. L. Andrews of New York, and he always regarded it as one of his CHOICEST Books, and pronounced it scarcely inferior to Morell's copy, which sold in 1866 for Two Thousand Dollars; it contains about EIGHT HUNDRED (including Fifty-nine Portraits of Washington) Portraits and Plates, in addition to the set of choice PROOF PLATES which form a part of the work itself, and it is extended from five to ten volumes in Quarto.

The Portraits include almost every officer named in the text. The other Plates comprise almost every scene made memorable by the stirring events of the American Revolution. The capture and execution of André, and other striking events, are illustrated by the rarest of plates.

Some of the portraits are of so much rarity that one of our best known collectors, himself the owner of the finest set of the work in existence, remarked concerning one of them, that it was worth fifty dollars—we do not pretend to say there are many of that value, but we do venture to assert that the collection of a similar lot of plates would be a work of much time, and would involve the expenditure of a very large sum.

In addition to the plates there is an AUTOGRAPH LETTER entirely in the Handwriting of GEORGE WASHINGTON, and letters by other distinguished men.

It is altogether a work of the highest interest, and fitted to adorn a library of the first magnitude.

2538 WEIGEL (T. O.) Collectio Weigeliana: die Anfänge der Drucker kunst in Bild und Schrift: an deren frühesten Erzeugnissen in der Weigelschen Sammlung erläutert von T. O. Weigel und Dr. Ad. Zestermann.
Leipzig: T. O. Weigel. 1866.

2 vols., folio, half red levant morocco, gilt top, uncut; with 145 FACSIMILES, and many WOODCUTS in the text.

Only 325 copies were printed of this most important publication, the necessary companion to "SOTHEBY'S Principia Typographica, 3 vols., folio, 1858," but executed with infinitely more critical sagacity and learning.

Every distinguished collector of Books and Prints and every Public Library must have this book as the standard work of information and reference on the subject of the History of Printing before the art of printing with movable types was invented by GUTTENBERG at Mentz.

The text to this grand work was written by D. August Zestermann, with the assistance of Mr. T. O. Weigel, and they have now placed before the world in the above work, a complete HISTORY OF THE GRAPHIC ARTS, THEIR INVENTION AND CULTIVATION DURING THE FIFTEENTH CENTURY, illustrated throughout by the Art-Monuments of the Weigel collection, thus displaying a vivid picture of the thoughts, feelings, and superstitions of the Christian world previous to the Reformation, readily understood, and fully revealing the state of mind of Christian Europe during that period.

The artistic execution of the 145 Facsimiles has been accomplished with marvellous fidelity,—and even the most rigid and fastidious critic would find himself compelled to acknowledge and extol their absolute correctness. Both the re-engraving and the coloring of all the facsimiles of Block prints have been effected with scrupulous accuracy, and the very spirit and quaint expression of the mediæval artists have been caught and reproduced.

2539 WELD (I.) Travels through the States of North America, and the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, during the years 1795, 1796 and 1797. Illustrated and Embellished with Sixteen Plates. London. 1799.

2599 WILSON (A.) American Ornithology; or, the Natural History of the Birds of the United States. Illustrated with plates. Engraved and colored from original drawings taken from nature. By Alexander Wilson. Philadelphia: Published by Bradford & Inskip. 1808.

9 vols., 4to, half morocco. A good copy of the original edition. The PLATES of this edition exceed in beauty and freshness those of any subsequent issue, and though some of them have been "set off" on the opposite pages of text, the book is not the less valuable, as this is the sure mark of an original copy. The plates in this edition were all colored by hand.

His ardent and perspicacious mind enabled him to exhibit the truths he discovered, in that warm, lucid, and captivating language which never fails to reach the heart of his reader; while the faithfulness of his delineations show most advantageously the accuracy of his pencil.

"Equal in elegance to the most distinguished of our own splendid works on Ornithology."—CUVIER.

"With an enthusiasm never excelled, this extraordinary man penetrated the vast territories of the United States, undeterred by forests or swamps, for the sole purpose of describing the native birds."—LORD BROUGHAM.

In this, as in all the copies of the original edition, the plates are discolored, owing to the softness of the paper.

ERRATA.

The errors in this Catalogue are more numerous than important, and the intelligent reader can correct the most of them. They will be found on pages v, vi, and ix of the "Notice," and in the following Lots:—4, 38, 46, 54, 59, 65, 94, 106, 116, 157, 165, 175, 189, 199, 204, 209, 224, 240, 247, 263, 273, 275, 289, 294; in Lot 326, for "Moore," read Medwin; 336, 352, 376; Lot 381, for "CHALMERS," read CHAMBERS; the note in Lot 401 belongs to Lot 400; 414; Lot 452, for "Pictorial," read Poetical; 485, 499; in Lot 552 (note), for "Frontispiece," read Advertisement; Lot 567 (note), for "Etchings," etc., read Etching, etc.; 600, 743, 803, 909, 954, 984, 1106, 1177, 1272, 1388, 1469, 1492, 1552, 1705, 1737, 1757, 1862, 1904, 1913, 2131, 2241, 2514, 2554, 2555, 2586. There are, doubtless, many other errors which have been overlooked. It is almost impossible to avoid mistakes, especially in a catalogue got up with so much haste.
